

EXTERNAL COMMUNICATION

March 20, 2020

Coronavirus Update – 12

The total number of coronavirus cases in India has climbed to 206 as confirmed by the Indian Council of Medical Research. India's tally of Covid-19 cases includes fresh cases from Maharashtra, Gujarat, Punjab, West Bengal, Uttar Pradesh and Andhra Pradesh.

The Government has further tightened travel restrictions and barred all scheduled international incoming commercial flights from March 22-29, 2020. This advisory is in addition to the restrictions previously implemented.

While addressing the nation yesterday, Prime Minister Narendra Modi called for a self-imposed People's Curfew on March 22, 2020 where no citizen should step out or congregate in order to fight the rapidly-spreading coronavirus. He said social distancing was very important in such times.

The Government has also advised all private sector offices including multinational companies, IT firms, industries, corporate offices situated to allow their employees to work from home.

We continue to monitor the situation and assure you of our continued support.

Your relationship managers remain available 24x7 to take your calls and assist you as required.
