Coronavirus Destination Update

The coronavirus cases have continued to rise in the region; however, we are seeing destinations gearing up for the new normal. There is gradual ease of restrictions with added precautions and decision-making is to be reviewed in keeping with the epidemiological pattern of the disease.

NEPAL

Nepal, which extended its nationwide lockdown till June 2 to contain the spread of the coronavirus, is among the countries having the least number of cases, inspite of recent surge. All international flights and cross-border movement are suspended until June 14.

The coronavirus case count in Nepal now stands at 854 cases, with 183 recovered according to latest health ministry figures. 5 deaths are reported due to the virus.
